

The Augustine College Summer Conference
Monday, June 8th – Friday, June 12th 2020
The Ancient Roots of Modern Medicine: Faith Seeking Understanding

Monday, June 8, 6 pm (EDT) (All live Q&A sessions start at 6 pm EDT unless otherwise indicated)

John Patrick discusses Hippocrates and Current Ethical Issues

Tuesday, June 9

John Robson discusses “Don’t Call Me in the Morning: Limitations of Ancient Medicine” and “A Pill for Every Ill: Limitations of Modern Medicine (what has been lost)”

Wednesday, June 10

Edward Tingley discusses “Philosophy as a Way of Life” and “The Divine Order in Art and Philosophy”

Thursday, June 11

6 pm – Dominic Mangianello discusses “Sophocles on Suffering: Philoctetes and Oedipus at Colonus”

7:30 pm – Brian Butcher discusses Augustine’s Confessions

Friday, June 12

Benjamin Holler and Nathan Gamble discuss “Is the Writing on the Wall for Current Medical Oaths? A Brief Historical Review of Oath Taking at Medical Schools”